- Help facilitate, lead and assist with programs/camps, including training and care of children and youth
- Community outreach
- Development and fundraising

Brief Description

Promise Vancouver is seeking a seasonal, full-time, youth staff member to join our team. Our new team member will be a young person who is authentic, caring, able to build relationships with wide-ranging demographics, and be willing to grow as a gifted communicator as well as be able to assist and serve, with particular sensitivity to the needs of youth, young adults, and their families, particularly in under-resourced communities.

Primary Areas of Responsibility

1. Assist in the implementation of summer programs and camps from July 2020 through August 2020.
2. Build meaningful relationships and connections with those in and around our neighbourhood who seek support and community in the city.
3. Leadership and oversight over children and youth, with attention to community-building and spiritual development through strong friendships.
4. Member of fundraising team.

Staff Responsibilities

1. Assist and serve as a youth leader in programs and camps aimed at serving young people and their families.
2. Participate as a member of the staff team in the care of the people and community Promise Vancouver serves.
3. Fundraising.
4. This position reports to the Program Directors and Day Camp Counsellors

The following words and phrases describe our new team member:

- Loves God and loves neighbours.
- Open to a life of prayer life.
- Aware of the complexities of contemporary urban life for young people and families
- Teachable leader with the capacity to connect with diverse groups of people.
- Open to help develop healthy relationship and accountability.
- Willing to 'reach out' and help others reach out to grow.
- Able to relate personally, culturally, and socially to young people and their families.
